Evaluation & Grading

- Participation and Country Current Event Presentation: For this part of your grade, I will assess the quality of your contribution to the class. Since you cannot participate if you are not present, I will take attendance on a regular basis. I also expect you to read the assigned material before each class and to participate by joining in class discussions, class exercises and by asking questions. You are also required to lead a classroom discussion on a country current event in the context of international business course. The assigned person will engage in a 3-minute lecture giving the background to the event. He/she will then engage in the class in a 5-7 minutes discussion about the topic. The individual must email the class his/her topic 24 hours prior to the current event discussion. All students are expected to become familiar with the topic and engage in classroom discussion. This will count towards the class participation component of your final grade. A schedule of current event discussion will be announced in class.
- Exams: There are 4 exams in this class. Each exam will consist of multiple choice and short answer type questions.

Possible Points

Participation and Country Current Events	200
Exams (4 Exams @ 200 points each)	800
TOTAL	1000

100% to 90% = A

89% to 80% = B

79% to 70% = C

69% to 60% = D

Less than 59% = F

Absence Policy

Regular and punctual attendance at all scheduled classes is expected of all students. University regulations authorize certain absences of students when representing the University (e.g. at athletic, student government, student development, or fine arts events). Absences that may be necessary to fulfill course requirements and are approved by the Provost are also considered to be authorized. The maximum number of authorized absences during one semester is three for a Tuesday/ Thursday class and two for a class meeting once a week. Additional authorized absences may be granted on an individual basis when extreme circumstances warrant. Individual faculty may not enforce a more restrictive policy than what is set by the University. Students are required to notify instructors prior to any missed class and will be held responsible for all class and laboratory assignments.

Grade Distribution:

Percentage	Letter Grade	Grade Points
100-90	A	4.0
80-89	B	3.0
70-79	C	2.0
60-69	D	1.0
59 or below	F	0.0

Academic Integrity

School expects honesty from students in presenting all of their academic work. Students are responsible for knowing and observing accepted principles of scholarly research and writing in all academic work.

Academic dishonesty or cheating includes acts of plagiarism, forgery, fabrication or misrepresentation, such as the following:

- claiming the work or thoughts of others as your own
- copying the writing of others into your written work without appropriate attribution
- writing papers for other students or allowing them to submit your work as their own
- buying papers and turning them in as your own
- having someone else write or create all or part of the content of your assignments
- submitting the same paper for more than one study or class without explicit permission from the faculty members

General Principles

This program is committed to principles of trust, accountability, clear expectations and consequences. It is also committed to redemptive efforts, which are meaningful only in light of these principles. Students will be granted due process and the opportunity for an appeal.

Academic dishonesty offenses generally are subject to incremental disciplinary actions. Some first offenses, however, receive severe penalties, including dismissal from the program.

General Disciplinary

The following is a non-comprehensive list of possible actions apart from dismissal from the program: warning from a professor, program director; a lower or failing grade on an assignment, test or course; suspension or dismissal from the course; suspension or dismissal from the program.

Disciplinary Actions for Specific Offenses

Some academic dishonesty offenses call for specific disciplinary actions. The following have been identified:

Falsification of documents: Students who falsify or present falsified documents may be dismissed. Prospective students who are discovered to have presented falsified admission documents prior to admission shall be denied admission to the program. Should it be discovered after admission that a student had presented falsified documents for admission, such admission may be annulled and the record of academic achievement removed from the academic record, with appropriate notations. Such annulments or denials may be reviewed after one year.

Dishonesty in course requirements: Course work (a quiz, assignment, report, mid-term examination, research paper, etc.) in which a student has been dishonest generally will receive zero points towards the grade in fulfillment of a course requirement, and/or the student may receive a failing grade for the course. The professor of the course determines the appropriate consequence.

Final assignment: When a student cheats in a major or final assignment such as a comprehensive examination or presents plagiarized material in a major or final assignment, that student shall receive an F in that particular subject. Student cheats on more than two exams shall be dismissed from this program.
